PARTNERSHIP & DATA SERVICES PROGRAM

The 2010 Decennial is now complete!

The United States & its territories have changed over the last decade - take this opportunity to learn more about those changes and how they affect you. The Partnership & Data Services Program staff offers you a wide variety of no-cost services. The Seattle region covers Alaska, Northern California, Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

Census data and maps come in many formats and levels of detail. Data are readily available on our Internet homepage at www.census.gov, on CD-ROMS and DVDs, computer printouts and census maps. Examples of information collected include data about population, socio-economic characteristics, education, business and industry, housing and construction, governments and foreign trade.

Services offered include:

PARTNERSHIP & DATA SERVICES: We will help you locate, understand and use Census Bureau data, products and services. We will provide information to data users about organizations that maintain large holdings of Census data, such as State Data Centers and libraries.

EXHIBITS: We exhibit census products at your conferences and conventions.

PRESENTATIONS: Community organizations, professional chapters, state-wide conferences and meetings, non-profit organizations, government entities, trade and business associations can request a speaker.

EDUCATION & WORKSHOPS: We provide a program of data user education, sponsoring on-site workshops, computer lab sessions and conferences on census-related topics. Training sessions often include on-line demonstrations and are targeted to your needs and interests.

Presentation & Workshop topics include, but are not limited to:

- 2000-2010 Census: Tracking the Trends
- Navigating the American Fact Finder Website
- Business Uses of Census Data
- Census Data for Grant Writers
- Census in the Schools
- Community/Neighborhood Analysis Workshop
- Race and Ethnic Studies
- Media Workshop
- American Indian & Alaska Native Statistics Workshop
- How Small Businesses Can Profit from Census Information
- Putting The Census Into Context: An Interactive Workshop for Journalists
